Foundation Recognizes the Service and Sacrifice of US Law Enforcement Officers during National Police Week 2012

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (May 13, 2012) – National Police Week, which occurs each year during the week of May 15th, recognizes the service and sacrifice of U.S. law enforcement. Established by a joint resolution of Congress in 1962, National Police Week pays special recognition to those law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty. National Police Week 2012 will be from Sunday, May 13th through Saturday, May 19th.

Our protection comes at a price. Each year, there are approximately 16,000 assaults on law enforcement officers, resulting in nearly 60,000 injuries. Sadly, over the last decade, an average of 160 officers a year have been killed in the line of duty nationwide.

The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation expresses its appreciation to the dedicated men and women of the Palm Beach Gardens Police Department who put their lives on the line each and every day for the safety and protection of others. They serve with valor and distinction – and with great success.

Thank you to our men and women in uniform.
