Foundation Elects Kenneth R. Kennerly to Board of Directors

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (October 17, 2011) – The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation announced today that Kenneth R. Kennerly has been elected to the Foundation's board of directors. He will begin serving immediately and will stand for reelection for a full two-year term at the Foundation's 2013 Annual Meeting.

Mr. Kennerly replaces Sergeant Jack Schnur who has resigned from the board for professional reasons but will remain as an ex-officio advisor to the board.

Ken Kennerly is the President & CEO of IGP Sports & Entertainment Group. IGP is an international sports marketing, event management, and athlete representation firm specializing in the golf industry. High profile clients include the management of The Honda Classic (a PGA TOUR event), PGA TOUR Professional Robert Allenby, and several other professional golfers. He is also Executive Director of The Honda Classic.

A native of New York City, and a graduate of Dartmouth College, Mr. Kennerly moved to Palm Beach County in 1993.

"Ken's extensive knowledge and experience in corporate finance and general business matters will benefit the Board greatly", said Thomas F. Murphy, President, Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation. "He is a welcome addition to the Board and we look forward to working with him."
