Foundation Makes Grant to the Police Department for High Tech Communications System

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (April 3, 2013) –The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation announced today that it has made a financial grant to the Police Department for the purchase of a new high-tech communications system for the Hostage/Crisis Negotiation and Tactical Teams.

The unit is designed to allow incident commanders to communicate more easily with hostage takers or persons threatening suicide using either a home phone service or cellular phones and to do it from a position of safety. The system incorporates bluetooth wireless technology thus eliminating the need to find a landline equipped home in the middle of the night. The system incorporates modularity, upgradeability and ease in setup and operations.
