PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (February 16, 2017) – The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation announced today that Radian Group Inc. (NYSE: RDN) a provider of private mortgage insurance, risk management products and real estate services to financial institutions has provided a $15,000 donation. The funds will be dedicated to the Foundation’s annual scholarship program and will allow for larger scholarship amounts to the program’s recipients.

Radian’s gift is to recognize their chairman, Herb Wender, who has devoted more than 40 years of service to the company. Mr. & Mrs. Wender are residents of Palm Beach Gardens and he recommended the Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation as his charity of choice for the donation.

In appreciation of Radian’s contribution, the Foundation’s scholarship program will be named as the “Herb and Penny Wender Scholarship Fund.”

“At Radian, we are committed to investing in the communities where we live and work, and are pleased to fund the Herb and Penny Wender Scholarship. In recognition of Herb’s 40 years of outstanding service, we look forward to building on the Foundation’s success and helping to lessen the financial burden of higher education for more Palm Beach Gardens families,” said S.A. Ibrahim, Chief Executive Officer of Radian Group.

This is the fifth year in a row that the Police Foundation has made scholarships available to those pursuing a higher education degree.

“The Police Foundation is very appreciative of the financial support from Radian. It allows us to extend our scholarship program and increase the award amount to recognize the continuing surge in US higher education costs” said Tom Murphy, President and CEO of the Police Foundation.
