Police Foundation Sponsors Gardens Cup

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (April 27, 2017) – The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation announced today that it will be the Presenting Sponsor of “The Gardens Cup.” This two-person, fun-based charity scramble tournament will be played at the Sandhill Crane Golf Course on May 20, 2017 with a tee off at 8:30 AM.

The tournament is open to golfers of all skill levels. Those looking for a little competition can vie to be named the Gardens Cup Team Champions while others can play just for fun.

This annual charity event helps support the Palm Beach Gardens SPIRIT team, a volunteer based committee of City employees whose mission is to give back to others, boost employee morale and increase employee engagement in the city.

The Police Foundation has been the Presenting Sponsor of this event since its inception and is part of our Community Outreach mission.

Individuals or organizations interested in helping to sponsor the event, or play in the tournament should contact Ms. Charlotte Presensky at 561 804-7042 or at cpresensky@pbgfl.com. More information on the tournament is available at pbgpf.org/the-gardens-cup/
