Foundation receives grant from IBM Corporation

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL –The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation, whose mission is to enhance the safety of our community and the effectiveness of the Palm Beach Gardens Police Department, has received a $3,000. grant from IBM Corporation as part of IBM's 2012 Community Grants program.

The program is a component of IBM's On Demand Community initiative and linked to IBM's corporate citizenship and corporate affairs programs.

The Community Grant Program is aimed at helping meet the changing needs and demands of communities worldwide and is intended to help IBM employees and retirees assist their local philanthropic organizations. Police Foundation president Tom Murphy is an IBM retiree.

In accepting the grant the Foundation Board indicated that it would use the funds to enhance its community outreach via website technology and through the use of social media programs such as Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and mobile technology applications.
